

Nicole's English Classes

Planning a surprise party!

Let's pretend that you are planning a surprise party for your sibling/best friend!

Think about what you would do.

Nicole's English Classes

A blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide, overlapping each other.

Who would you invite?

A blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide, overlapping each other.

What day would it be?

What time would
it be?

A blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide, overlapping each other and the orange background.

Where would you have the party?

Two overlapping parallelogram shapes, one blue and one light green, are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide.

What decorations would you use?

A blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide, overlapping each other and the orange background.

What food would you have?

A blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide, overlapping each other and the orange background.

What drinks would you have?

A blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide, overlapping each other and the orange background.

What activities would you do?

A blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram are positioned in the top-left corner of the slide, overlapping each other and the orange background.

What presents would you give?

