What is the difference between Present Simple and Present Continuous?

PRESENT SIMPLE

- Things which are always true
- Permanent situations (or at least for a few years)
- Habits or things we do regularly
- Future events which are part of a timeline
- To talk about what happens in books or films

PRESENT CONTINUOUS

- Things that are happening at the moment of speaking
- Temporary situations
- Temporary or new habits
- Definite future plans
- To talk about pictures or photos

Present

USE

1. To describe actions that started in the past and continue to the present
2. To describe experiences that have happened at an unspecified time in the past

FORM

Positive: Subject + have/has + past participle of verb
Negative: Subject + have/has + not + past participle of verb
Question: Have/has + subject + past participle of verb?

EXAMPLES

I have lived here for 3 years. (action started in past and continues to present)
She has been to China before. (unspecified time in past)
